Resurrection Sunday: Triumphalism is Not Victory

By John W. Mauck

Removing barriers which hide Yeshua, not just from Israel but from all humanity, is integral to the "comfort" we are to offer. One such barrier is triumphalism.

The Real Bracket of Shame: College Free Speech Madness

By Noel W. Sterett

Tonight's NCAA men's basketball championship game will bring an end to this year's March Madness. Our friends at the Alliance Defending Freedom put together the true "Bracket of Shame" which highlights the increasing madness of how colleges across the country are suppressing the freedom of speech on their campuses.

Interview with Christian Florist's Attorney

Attorney Kristen Waggoner from Alliance Defending Freedom represents Barronelle Stutzman in the important religious freedom lawsuit in Washington State. Barronelle Stutzman is the owner of Arlene's Flowers. Acting consistent with her faith, she declined to use her creative skills to beautify the same-sex ceremony of a long-time customer. The State of Washington ruled against Stutzman in February. She will now ask the U.S. Supreme Court to protect her religious freedom.
